About This Game

Plox Neon's throwback visuals and exciting music turn this action-packed puzzle game into an entrancing experience. Use your wits to find the best way to clear areas of the map and trap monsters to earn points.

The characteristics of each monster and how they interact within the map is the key to earning a high score. The challenge of Plox Neon is to exploit their weaknesses while minimizing the risk of being attacked, and unlocking new levels by reaching the clearing goal.

Features:

- 60 Challenging Puzzle Levels
- 8 Monsters, each requiring their own strategy to overcome
- 6 Electronic Audio Tracks
- Stars and High Score system to challenge yourself
- Colorful mix of organic and retro arcade visuals

Full Disclosure Desert Owl owns Pox Nora therefore I auto purchased this game with the intent to give them 10/10 review and possibly encourage another sale or two.

Happy to say (and suprised) that I like the game enough to say it's worthy of purchase all by it's self. It's a nice little puzzle/coffee break game. It's in fact a more colorful and far more enjoyable version of "Snake" which isn't all that exciting in and of itself. However there's something to be said for keeping it simple and sticking with what works. It's bright, challenging, and the core premise taken right from the of the original Snake's core and only mechanic is still enjoyable.

It's not groundbreaking but again Pox Nora so.....10/10!!!! MUST BUY. Plox Neon is like you asked yourself "What would Jezzball look like in 2017?" This is the answer. It doesn't play exactly like Jezzball but it feels so good to play and just hits me like Jezzball does. For $5 it's a killer deal, I love the mechanic of Jezzball and Plox Neon delivers on every front.

<https://youtu.be/CRPIRexMQso>. It's a Qix clone, it has good music, a variety of enemies, challenging levels, it's neon and responsive. What else do you want? From a Qix clone I mean... Full prize ok. Sale YEAH!

I was a big fan of Qix from Taito and for years I looked for a similar game on Mac. Thank you so much to make my dream come true. Is there a way to create random levels?
